Montana Dropout Statistics

Collector's Handbook

This data will contribute to a national dropout statistics database. Comparable national and state-by-state dropout statistics are available.

Dropouts are the count of individuals who:

 were enrolled in school on the date of the previous year October enrollment count or at some time during the previous school year and were not enrolled on the date of the current school year October count,

or

2) were not enrolled at the beginning of the previous school year but were expected to enroll and did not re-enroll during the year ("no show") and were not enrolled on the date of the current school year October count,

and

3) have not graduated from high school or completed a state- or district-approved high school educational program,

and

4) have not transferred to another school, been temporarily absent due to a school-recognized illness or suspension, or died.

See the table on page 4 to determine if a student is or is not a dropout.

I. Purpose— Objectives for gathering dropout data

What is the purpose for gathering dropout data?

1. To provide information to analyze existing programs and target dropout prevention and intervention strategies.

Gathering dropout data and maintaining annual records provide longitudinal information on students which allows a district to observe its unique patterns of school dropouts. That information may assist schools to target prevention and intervention programs and policies that focus on local circumstances and address the problems at their roots, not just react to the symptoms.

A school district might discover that its school dropouts are primarily students who work part-time, males in 10th grade, teenage mothers, students who move often, female students with few credits, students with weak academic programs, children who moved in vulnerable middle school years, or some other factor. That information could help focus resources and impact the grade level and structure of counseling programs, academic area programs, alternative schools, and attendance or retention policies.

2. To assist schools to meet accreditation standards for follow-up studies of students no longer in attendance.

The Montana School Accreditation Standards (10.55.603, ARM) require schools to do follow-up studies of graduates and students no longer in attendance. The Record of School Leavers provides an information base for follow-up. If the Record of School Leavers is maintained for all grades, patterns of mobility (transferring) and dropping in and out may be observed over a period of time. In a larger district, the school records of students transferring within the district might be followed to observe the effectiveness of a specific curriculum area and to observe whether future performance in math, for instance, is similar for students who remain in the school or if it differs significantly.

One type of study might analyze programs to address factors that are common over the years among recorded dropouts—programs to keep teenage mothers in school, methods of working with students with histories of many moves and schools, or varied scheduling for students who work—to determine if prevention programs reduce the dropout rate. The record would also provide a list of names for survey purposes.

3. To provide reliable and uniform dropout data.

Reliable dropout data does not exist unless common reporting procedures are used. Schools must keep systematic records of students who enter or leave their systems. Without those records, there is no way to verify whether a student who is considered a dropout in one year may also be considered a dropout in another year or in another school.

Dropout rates can be calculated and reported in three different ways:

- event rates (snapshot of those who drop out in a single year),
- status rates (proportion of population who have not completed school and are not enrolled), and
- cohort rates (comprehensive picture which follows a sample group of students over time and generalizes their rate to a larger group).

Each of these methods has disadvantages. The collection method used in this handbook is an event rate adapted from the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) at the U.S. Department of Education. The Center recognized the need to establish a workable common understanding of "dropout" and involved 30 states in field tests of a variety of methods and definitions. The method that was adopted uses a yearly event rate and was compatible with school record keeping and other data gathering efforts.

II. Determining Dropouts— How to gather data

How do I know what some of the dropout terms mean?

Specific dropout terms used in this handbook are defined below.

A. Montana Dropout Glossary

Dropout: An individual who: (1) was enrolled in school on the date of the previous year October enrollment count or at some time during the previous school year and was not enrolled on the date of the current school year October count, or (2) was not enrolled at the beginning of the previous school year but was expected to enroll and did not re-enroll during the year ("no show") and was not enrolled on the date of the current school year October count, and (3) has not graduated from high school or completed a state- or district-approved high school educational program, and (4) has not transferred to another school, been temporarily absent due to a school-recognized illness or suspension, or died.

Enrollment Count: Count of all students on current roll as of the first Monday in October. A student cannot be counted as enrolled if absent for more than 10 consecutive days and the student has not returned to school.

Expulsion: Discplinary action by the board of trustees removing a student from a school program. Expulsion is available only to the board of trustees.

Gender/Sex: An individual's gender, male (M) or female (F).

General Education Development (GED): A high school equivalency certificate granted to individuals who have not completed a formal high school education but have achieved satisfactory scores on a comprehensive test that appraises educational development.

Graduate: Individual who has received formal recognition from school authorities, by the granting of a diploma, for completing a prescribed program for students in a secondary level school. This does not include other completers, high school equivalency (GED) recipients, or other certificate recipients.

Race/Ethnicity: The general racial or ethnic category which most clearly reflects the individual's recognition in his or her community, or with which the individual most identifies. For the 1999-2000 school year dropout form, an additional category of Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander was added.

American Indian or Alaskan Native—Any individual 1) who is a member of a tribe, band, or other organized group of Indians, including those tribes, bands, or groups terminated since 1940, and those recognized by the state in which they reside, or who is a descendant, in the first or second degree,* of such members, or 2) is considered by the Secretary of the Interior, Bureau of Indian Affairs or Indian Health Service to be an Indian for any purpose, or 3) is an Eskimo or Aleut or other Alaskan Native.

*First degree refers to parents and second degree refers to the child's grandparents.

Asian—A person having origins of any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian subcontinents. This area includes, for example, China, India, Japan, and Korea.

Black (not Hispanic)—A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.

Hispanic—A person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander—A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii or the Pacific Islands. This area includes, for example, Guam, the Philippine Islands, Samoa and Tahiti.

White (not Hispanic)—A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, North Africa, or the Middle East.

Suspension: Disciplinary action by a teacher, superintendent or principal, removing a student from a school program.

Student: Individual for whom instruction is provided in an elementary or secondary education program (not an adult education program) that is under the jurisdiction of a school or other education institution.

Transfer: A student who exits from one educational institution to enroll in another.

Vocational Education Concentrator: A student who will have received at least three units of vocational course credit during a high school career. These credits may be earned in multiple vocational program areas. To assign the student to a vocational education program area, code the student in the area where the majority of a vocational credit is given. If a student does not have a clear majority of credit in a single program area, they may be coded as a blend. (A unit of credit is two semesters of study.)

1. Reason for Leaving School—Codes for Records

2. Records of Students Who Leave School

How do I keep track of students who leave school during the year so that I can compile a dropout report at the end of the year?

Maintaining an annual list of all students who were enrolled, but subsequently left the school, will provide records needed to determine dropouts. That list must be checked against the enrollment for the current year to assure that a student who left school but has re-enrolled, is not counted as a dropout. Maintaining, updating, and checking this record will be an ongoing task. Field tests indicate that keeping an updated roster of school leavers can substantially reduce the number of transfers erroneously classified as dropouts.

A sample form of Record of School Leavers is shown in Illustration 1 and indicates data items for each school leaver. Examples of individual records are shown in Section III, B—Information Reported. A blank form is included in Section III, C, 1—Record of School Leavers.

Student Name	Student ID #	Grade NOT Attended	Race/ Ethnic	*Voc. Ed. Concent.	IEP Y/N	Reason for Leaving	√ Fall "No Show"	Dropout Y/N	Remarks

The information on the Record of School Leavers includes:

- student name and ID# (if a district uses one) allow records to be matched and duplicates or re-enrollments to be eliminated.
- date last in school and grade not attending (the class level that is impacted if student is a dropout) helps keep track of time of year students drop in and out during the year.
- gender, race/ethnicity, IEP and reason for leaving (codes were listed in the last section) all provide additional clues when observing the data.
- vocational education concentrator is a student who, upon graduation, will have received at least three units of credit in a single vocational program or in a blend (combination of vocational courses in two or more program areas). A unit is two semesters of study.
- checking fall "no shows" (as of October dropout count) places those students in the correct dropout year.
- dropout "Yes" or "No" allows for a documented record of the dropouts for reporting and recordkeeping over the years.
- remarks allow for reference to documents, files, or records that may need to be accessed to determine the leaver status, or may be used to record subsequent re-entry or additional exits that year.

The information obtained in the record allows districts to answer a variety of questions, including whether males and females or different racial groups drop out at different grade levels, or if certain dropout reasons are more likely to impact a specific group of students.

3. Fall "No Shows"

How do I count the students who were "no shows," who completed the previous grade but did not enroll as expected in the fall?

Fall "no shows" as of October 7, 2002, are dropouts from the grade for which they did not enroll. The names of the "no shows" are recorded on the Record of School Leavers at the time of the October enrollment count and remain on the list for the year. If they re-enroll sometime during the year, a remark is made on the record.

III. Reporting Dropout Data

A. The Reporting Year

What time of the year do I count students as "dropouts"?

A "snapshot" of school membership and dropouts is provided by using a count taken at a single point in time. The date a student is counted as a dropout is the same date as the October enrollment count, which for the 2001-2002 school year was October 1, 2001, and for 2002-2003 school year is October 7, 2002. Student data for those dates must currently be maintained by schools reporting student enrollment for both accreditation and state funding purposes.

EXAMPLE: On October 11, 2002, School District X reported as 2001-2002 dropouts all students who fit the dropout definitions, and were not enrolled in school on October 7, 2002.

B. Information Reported

What do I report as dropout data for the Dropout Report?

Compiled dropout totals, by gender and race/ethnicity are reported for each grade level. The Record of School Leavers provides an information base. Before compiling totals:

- eliminate any duplicates (students who may have dropped out, re-enrolled, and dropped out again in one year)
- assign "ungraded" dropouts to the grade level most closely related to their age
- determine the correct dropout grade for students who dropped out over the summer (the grade for which they did not enroll in the fall)
- count the numbers of dropouts indicated on the record for each grade, by gender and by race

Example of recording school leavers:

- Lauri Smith completed 9th grade in the 2000-2001 school year. She was expected to enroll in the 10th grade for the 2001-2002 school year. By October 4, 2001, she hadn't enrolled and was a "no show." However, in September of the 2002-2003 school year, she re-enrolled and was on the rolls on October 7, 2002. Lauri WILL NOT be reported as a 2001-2002 dropout.
- Michael Allison, a white male, was a 10th grade completer who became an 11th grade "no show" on October 1, 2001, and did not re-enroll during the year nor in the fall of 2002. Michael will be reported as a 2001-2002 11th grade, white male DROPOUT.
- June Fox, a white female 9th grader, entered a drug/alcohol treatment program in November of 2001 and re-enrolled in school in February of 2002. However, in April she dropped out and had not re-enrolled by October 7, 2002. June will be reported as a 2001-2002 9th grade, white female DROPOUT.
- Alex Fable, an 8th grader, did not enroll for the 9th grade and is not 16 years old. His mother reported to the county superintendent that she is operating a home school, which is officially recognized by state statute. Alex WILL NOT be counted as a dropout.

Examples are recorded in Illustration 2.

C. Forms

What forms have been developed for gathering this data?

Copies of forms for the Record of School Leavers and the Dropout Report are included in this packet. The Record of School Leavers Worksheet will assist schools to maintain records throughout the year. This information will be used for completing the Dropout Report, which is the basic format that OPI uses each October to gather dropout data. The reasons for leaving are not currently gathered at the state level.

IV. Related Reports

Several federal programs now require information on students who leave the school system. The information gathered on the Montana Record of School Leavers (page 11) will assist with preparing each of the following reports.

A. Special Education Child Count

The Special Education Child Count, Part 3, Table 3, is due in June of each year and requests information on students exiting the special education program during the school year. Call Pat Reichert at 406-444-4430 for information.

B. Long-Term Out-of-School Suspension

The Long-Term Out-of-School Suspension/Expulsion report gathers information for reporting requirements for the Gun-Free Schools Act, Improving America's Schools Act, and Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. Out-of-School suspensions and expulsions of more than 10 days are reported for several categories of students by incident, weapon and violence involved and actions taken by the school or district. Call Pat Reichert at 406-444-4430 for information.

V. Using Dropout Data

A. Calculating the Dropout Rate

How is a dropout rate calculated?

Grade Level Rate: Divide the number of dropouts (A) by the October enrollment total (B) for each grade level. Use the enrollment for the same school year for which the dropout statistic is being computed (not for the current school year).

School/District Rate: Total the enrollment and dropouts for the grades to be included in the school dropout rate. Divide the total number of dropouts [Total (A)] by the enrollment total for the number of grades [Total (B)] to be included in this rate.

Grade Level	(A) Dropout Total	(B) Enroll Total	(A)/(B) Dropout Total Rate
8			%
Ungraded 7-8			%
7-8 Total			%
9			%
10			%
11			%
12			%
Ungraded HS			%
HS Total			%

Example: Small districts with low enrollment per grade may wish to calculate a rate for the total school or a rolling five-year dropout rate. Small numbers yield distorted annual percentages: in a class of 10 students, 1 dropout would translate to a 10 percent dropout rate.

Disaggregated Rate: Additional information can be obtained by calculating the male/female dropout rates, and the rates by race/ethnicity to determine if some groups of students are more likely to drop out.

B. Communicating the Data

How can the dropout information be used to impact programs?

Dropout statistics contribute to state and national reports which may serve as reference points for local schools. Depending on local circumstances, a report might be developed for school administrators, curriculum personnel, school boards, local citizens, or students. The Montana Statewide Education Profile includes the Montana dropout rates.
